

Agricultural Resource Management Survey – Phase II

Soybean Respondent Booklet

2012

Dear producer:

Every year USDA's National Agricultural Statistics Service (NASS) conducts the Agricultural Resource Management Survey (ARMS). ARMS is the U.S. Department of Agriculture's primary source of information on the production practices, resource use and economic well-being of America's farm households.

The ARMS gives U.S. farmers like you the opportunity to set the record straight about the issues that affect you and to ensure that policies and programs are based on data, not perceptions or opinions. The information you and other farmers across the nation provide helps USDA determine the financial situations on U.S. farms and ranches and will serve as a baseline for several federal assistance programs.

Information requested in this survey is used to prepare estimates on costs and returns. Under Title 7 of the U.S. Code and CIPSEA (Public Law 107-347), facts about your operation are kept confidential and used only for statistical purposes in combination with similar reports from other producers. Response is voluntary. You may skip any question(s) you prefer not to answer.

NASS safeguards the privacy of all respondents, ensuring that no individual respondent or operation can be identified. Be assured that your responses to ARMS will be kept completely confidential, as required by federal law.

Thank you for investing in the future of U.S. agriculture and ensuring that decisions affecting you, your family, your business and your community are based on the facts, straight from the source.

Sincerely,

Hubert Hamer
Chair, Agricultural Statistics Board
